On behalf of the Director of Central Intelligence, I am pleased to advise you that your nomination of Special Agent [] to serve as chief of the Physical Security Branch of the Community Security Group has been accepted. [] brings an impressive background of experience and accomplishments to the task. I look forward to having him on my staff.

An early reporting date for [] would be helpful in furthering the work of the Community Security Group. I defer to the FBI on the specific date, and suggest that our respective administrative staffs contact one another to make the necessary arrangements.
